

Lauderbach Elementary School Is Celebrating Literacy Week 2005

COMMUNITY READERS' DAY
Monday, March 7th
8:15 am - 9:45 am

J. Calvin Lauderbach Elementary School is celebrating Literacy Week, Monday March 7th through Friday March 11th. They have many exciting and educational activities planned, but the activity that the students are the fondest of and really look forward to is Community Readers' Day. The school is inviting the public to participate. This year Community Readers' Day will be the official "kick off" of Literacy Week. It will take place Monday, March 7th from 8:15 am to 9:45 am. Please consider bringing a favorite children's book along (or they can supply one from their library) and reading it to one of the classes. They only ask that you let them know when you would be available and if you have a preference as to the age/grade. They have 40 classrooms eager to have someone come and read to them. Please consider being that someone. You will also be cordially invited to the Lauderbach Breakfast Buffet to thank you for your interest and time spent volunteering.

Those that have participated before have commented on how much they have enjoyed the experience (and the buffet as well!). They look forward to hearing from you.

If you are interested in volunteering during Literacy Week, you can contact Lauderbach Elementary School directly at (619) 422-1127 or Monica Pedraza in the Mayor's office at (619) 691-5044.
